DELEGATION(S) Westwind Alternate School Principal Heather Schmitke presented information about the proposal to hold 3 classes in the old Council chambers space.

Shauna Hogenson indicated the classes would be held from March until May. She also discussed the type of classes and the ages of those attending the classes. Hogenson explained all materials would be brought in and out before and after each class.

Library Board Chair Doug Cooper gave a Library update for 2012. He discussed the space being given to the Library to use once Council started using their new space at the Community Center. Cooper also asked Council to clarify if the old Council chambers space is a Library area or not. He wants to know if the Library has control of the area.

Councillor Bikman arrived at 7:33 p.m.

REIMER PARK Council directed administration to prepare a Special Events Bylaw and to see if some of the Reimer home businesses would be able to operate under the new Home Occupation criteria.
