ITEM FOR DISCUSSION

ORRSC: Land use Bylaw Amendment Discussion Item: Solar Collector Household System – Roof Mounted

ORRSC Senior Planner Bonnie Brunner and Assistant Planner Hailey Winder presenting:

- In 2017, the Village of Stirling Land Use Bylaw was amended to add solar collector household systems as a discretionary use in all land use districts
- The amendment is to reclassify only the roof mounted solar collector household system as a permitted use subject to revised development standards
- That "Solar collector household system - roof mounted" is added to the list of permitted uses in all land use districts in section 2, Schedule 2 Land Use District Regulations.
- That "Solar collector household system" is deleted from the list of discretionary uses in all land use districts in section 3, Schedule 2 Land Use District Regulations and replaced with "Solar collector household system - wall mounted" and "Solar collector household system - ground mounted".
